

Ruskin Bond

Born – 19 May 1934

One of India's most beloved authors, Ruskin Bond, turned 90 this May 19. The author who has written more than 500 short stories, essays and novels, was born on this day in 1934.

On this special occasion, let's take a deep dive into the collection of Bond's best works for which he is known the world over.

Your child is encouraged to read the grade relevant book and write a Book review. The books are available online at Amazon.

Students of Grades I to II should read the books enlisted and narrate the story in their class, whereas Grades III to X should read the books enlisted and write a Book review.

Gr I – Stories short and sweet – illustrated

Gr II – Stories short and sweet - illustrated

Gr III – Stories short and sweet - illustrated

Gr IV – The Girl on the train

Gr V – The Room on the Roof

Gr VI – The Blue Umbrella

Gr VII – Our Trees still grow in Dehra

Gr VIII – Rusty

Gr IX – Ghost stories from the Raj

Gr X - Ghost stories from the Raj

Students of Grades XI & XII should watch the movies enlisted and write a Film review.

Gr XI – Stand and Deliver, Directed by Ramon Menendez

Gr XII – Theory of Everything, Directed by James Marsh